ROYAL ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

The JUNIOR DEPARTMENT of the Academy was instituted at Michaelmas, 1915, with the object of providing sound and suitable instruction for pupils who are too young to be admitted as ordinary students, and whose time is chiefly occupied with their general education.

Intending pupils must be under fourteen years of age (sixteen in the case of Female Vocalists), and care will be taken to place them under Teachers who have special experience in the teaching of young children.

As it is desirable to interfere as little as possible with a pupil's general education, every effort will be made to arrange lessons and classes to meet individual requirements.

The Prospectus, giving full particulars of the Course of Study, Fees, and Regulations, can be obtained on application.

A SPECIAL TRAINING COURSE FOR TEACHERS is being arranged to meet the requirements of the Teachers' Registration Council, which will accept the Course Certificate as an adequate qualification for admittance to the Teachers' Register.

This Register in January, 1921, will be definitely closed to all who cannot produce evidence that they have, either been mainly or solely employed in teaching for at least three academic years in schools recognized by the Council, or have undergone successfully a course of training in the principles and methods of teaching, accompanied by actual experience in the practice of teaching under supervision.

The Syllabus, giving full particulars of the Course, is now in the press, and will be ready by the end of July.

J. A. CREIGHTON,

Secretary.
